

THE RACE - LYRICS

TAKE ME

Take me as I am cause I
Want to show you something I

FOREVER SEX

Everlasting lust
Holy dopamine
From people I don't trust
the dust is kicking in

Bleach me with a glance
Teach me how to crash
Cause I don't want to slack
I don't want to break

It's a Sunday and the sun rays are creeping in living it up / a fever dream
Lighting up your crimson lips everlasting feel

holy harmonies
from voices i cant trust
the dust is wearing off

mirror my demise
help me with my lies

Why would I lie to myself?

WHEN I SAY SO

Lying again
Shivering and
Losing my time
Say that I'm yours once again

Hiding again
Sweat on my hands
Losing my sight
Say that I'm yours once again

Cause I want you to say that
When I say so

Lying again
Shivering and

Stay by my side and
Say that I'm yours once again

It's all about you
Why don't you come and guide?

ON THE VERGE

I'm on the verge of dying
I'm on the edge of my bed
And I don't care
If you care
'Cause
At times I feel like
I just want to close my eyes
I just want to close my eyes
I'm so tired
Give me something more, I
Guess I'm not alone now
Guess I'm not alone now

Give me up
Don't try to save me again
Baby give me up
Give me up right now

SLOWWWLY

Tell me slowly
How to breathe
Tell me slowly
How to breathe
I won't speak
No I won't speak

MOVEONUP

Trust me when I say
I will try to make it work
I will
Move on up
And I won't fuck it up
6 o'clock
What if I rip it off
Skinny shape
Heavy bones
Will it ever be late

Will it ever be cold

Move on up
Just let me fuck It up
8 o'clock
I'm about to rip it off
Skinny shape
Heavy bones
Will it ever be late
Will it ever be cold

Just because I don't count
Doesn't mean I won't run

In a lucid state
I will rest my bones
Will it ever be late
Will it ever be cold

BURNING
The timing
Of my silence
Is the timing
Of your Silence

Whatever you say
Whatever you praise
I'll be whatever you say
I'll be whatever you praise

You're right
Something's burning my eyes

ALL THOSE THINGS
All those things that you did to me
You never thought I was ok
But after all I'm dead to you
And you never thought I was ok

That's all of me

All those things that you did to me
You never thought I was ok
But after all I'm dead to you
And after all you're dead to me by now

Don't you begin
With me

HOLD ME TIGHT
Hold me tight
Looking at the sun won't make us shine

There's a part of me
That just wants to be
A part of everything
Won't you let it be....

Uuu...
